BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The Boston Conservatory of Music is a member of the National Association of Schools of Music. The requirements for entrance and for graduation as set forth in this catalogue are in accordance with the published regulations of the National Association of Schools of Music.

BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

THE BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC was founded in 1867 by the eminent musician, Julius Eichberg, a graduate of the Conservatory of Brussels with first prizes in violin and composition. After serving for a number of years as professor at the Geneva Conservatory, he came to Boston in 1859 to become director of the Museum Concerts, a position he held until 1866. Under his leadership the Conservatory gained a standing among the leading music schools and attracted students from all parts of the country. Herman P. Chelius, widely known pianist and organist, succeeded Mr. Eichberg as director in 1893. The Conservatory was first incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts in 1896. There followed several unsettled years during which reorganizations were effected in 1905, 1914, and 1920. In 1920, Agide Jacchia, then conductor of the "Pops" Concerts of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, became director. Mr. Jacchia's knowledge and wide experience proved of inestimable value in re-establishing the prestige of the school. He continued as director until his death in 1932. The following year Albert Alphin became head of the school.

Mr. Alphin received his musical training at the Boston Conservatory and had served as a member of the faculty from 1923 to 1927. As director of the Conservatory his first step was to reorganize the school as a non-profit-making institution. The school acquired its first permanent building on the Fenway in 1936. Three more buildings were added for school and dormitory purposes between the years of 1938 and 1942. In the spring of 1949 the construction of a new building was completed which provides additional classroom space and unexcelled studios and facilities for the drama and dance departments. The Concert Room, the Recital Hall, each seating approximately 135, and the Auditorium which seats over 500, afford ample opportunity for recitals, concerts, opera, dance programs and dramatic presentations.

The Conservatory buildings, including the dormitories, are located on The Fenway, facing one of Boston's most beautiful park systems, and are easily accessible by all means of transportation. While removed from the noise and confusion of the business district and in a quiet location conducive to good study, the school is within ten minutes walking distance of the leading concert halls, including Symphony Hall, Jordan Hall, and the Boston Opera House. Also in the vicinity are churches of all denominations, the Boston Public Library, and the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

The educational policies of the Boston Conservatory are formulated by the trustees in cooperation with the director and faculty. The faculty is composed of more than fifty experienced musicians and teachers many of whom are of national and international repute. Limited enrollment affords students the benefits of close contact with faculty members and of small class groups in which each student is assured the necessary individual attention. The Conservatory is approved for the training of non-quota foreign students and Veterans under Public Laws 16, 346 and 550.

Authority to grant the degree bachelor of music was obtained in 1938, and the degree bachelor of fine arts in 1951. Students graduating with the degree bachelor of music are admitted to the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences of Harvard University and in Radcliffe College on the same terms as graduates of institutions that have been approved by the Association of American Universities.

Whether preparing for a professional career, or studying as an avocation, the student finds in Boston opportunities for the enhancement of his musical and general culture which are unsurpassed anywhere in the United States. The concerts of the internationally famous Boston Symphony Orchestra and other orchestras, chamber music concerts, opera performances, and recitals of distinguished artists are invaluable in broadening the student's knowledge of musical literature, developing his critical faculties, and imbuing him with an appreciation of the highest standards in music and its performance.

General Information

PURPOSE

It is the purpose of the Boston Conservatory of Music to provide a thorough education in the three allied arts: music, drama and dance. In pursuance of this purpose each course leading to graduation is designed to give serious students the training that will enable them to take their place in the professional world as skilled performers and as capable and trustworthy teachers. Graduates and former students who are now successfully employed give evidence of the fulfillment of this aim. To a continued realization of this purpose the faculty of the Boston Conservatory of Music is respectfully dedicated.

ADMISSION

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT

No previous training in music is required for admission to the Preparatory Department. Applicants who have had training are given auditions upon entrance for purposes of classification.

DEGREE AND CERTIFICATE COURSES

Application for admission to the degree or certificate course must be made on forms obtained from the Conservatory and should be filed as early as possible before the date of intended entrance.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS: For admission to the degree course the applicant must have graduated from a high school or similar institution and must have completed a course which includes a minimum of fifteen units as follows:

English (representing 4 years' study)	3
Foreign Language	2
Mathematics	1
History or Civics	1
Science	1
*Electives	7
	<hr/> 15

*Of the electives 4 units should be in the following fields: Foreign Languages, Mathematics, Social Studies, Fine Arts, Science. The remaining 3 units may be free electives. Any deficiency in the above requirements must be made up during the first year of study.

CERTIFICATE COURSE: There are no specific academic requirements for admission to the certificate course, but a high school education or its equivalent is recommended.

MUSICAL REQUIREMENTS: An applicant for admission to the degree or certificate course with major in applied music must show by examination (voice or instrument) an ability to perform compositions equivalent to the more advanced listed in the respective Preparatory course. Before beginning the study of organ, the applicant should be able to pass an examination in Part II of preparatory piano. For admission to the Composition or Music Education course, the applicant should be able to pass an examination in the preparatory work in at least one instrument.

DANCE AND DRAMA: See pages 38 and 40 for general admission requirements to the dance and drama courses.

BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

SPECIAL STUDENTS: A Special Student, not being an aspirant for the degree, or certificate, may enter at any time and elect any subject for which he is qualified, the minimum enrollment being for a term of ten weekly private lessons or one semester of class instruction. A Special Student may transfer to the degree, diploma, or certificate course at any time providing he meets the academic and all other requirements; in effecting such a transfer, credit will be given for any subjects required in his course which have been completed previously in the Conservatory.

ADVANCED STANDING: Students desiring to transfer from accredited institutions should have a transcript of record and contemporary catalogs of the schools previously attended sent to the Conservatory in advance of the opening season. An evaluation of the credits in theoretical and academic subjects will be made and advanced standing determined accordingly. Advanced standing in applied music (voice or instrument) can be obtained by examination upon entrance. Students who have not studied in an accredited school may be admitted to advanced standing by passing special comprehensive examinations in their subjects. In no case will such examination reduce the number of credits that must be earned for the degree.

THE SEMESTER HOUR

The unit of credit is the semester hour. In general a semester hour is the amount of credit given for one hour of prepared class work per week for one semester. A semester hour in applied music (voice or instrument) is granted for three hours practice per week during one semester, plus the necessary individual or class instruction. In some subjects (Solfege, Ensemble, Chorus, Orchestra, etc.) in which the work is of a laboratory nature the amount of credit may vary from the number of hours required.

DEGREE COURSES

Students may major in any one of the following subjects leading to the baccalaureate degree: Voice, Organ, Piano, Harpsichord, Violin, Viola, Violoncello, Contrabass, Harp, Woodwind and Brass instruments, Composition, Music Education, Drama, Dance.

The degree bachelor of music is conferred upon music majors who have completed the required four-year course with a minimum of 120 semester hours credit.

The degree bachelor of fine arts is conferred upon drama or dance majors who have completed the required four-year course with a minimum of 120 semester hours credit.

Ninety percent of the required 120 semester hours must be for work which merits a grade of C or higher. Thirty semester hours must be earned in resident study.

CERTIFICATE COURSES

The Certificate is awarded to music majors who have completed the required three-year course with a minimum of 85 semester hours credit. Twenty eight semester hours must be earned in resident study.

EXAMINATIONS

All students pursuing courses leading to graduation are required to take examinations given at the end of each semester. Preparatory and Special Students must take examinations if they wish an official record kept of work completed. Examinations in applied music are given during the last week of each semester by a jury composed of the director and members of the faculty. Students whose records are unsatisfactory will not be admitted to the examinations. The method of marking is as follows: A, excellent; B, good; C, fair; D, passing; E, failure; X, absent from examination; W, withdrew from course. To graduate with honors a student must maintain an average grade of B or better throughout his course.

SPECIAL AWARDS

The Arthur B. Whitney medal is awarded annually to the regular course student who maintains the highest average grades for the school year. A student must be carrying a course equivalent to fifteen hours each semester in order to be eligible for this award.

The Conservatory Silver Medal is awarded upon graduation to candidates for the degree who have maintained honor grades throughout their courses.

PRACTICE ACCOMMODATIONS

Practice rooms are available to all resident students of the Conservatory at moderate fees. Privileges will be extended to non-resident students for practice of subjects studied at the Conservatory when schedules and accommodations permit. The Conservatory rates range from $4 to $10 per month, depending upon the number of daily hours and the instrument. Organ practice rates are 25, 40 and 50 cents per hour.

LIBRARY

The Library contains a carefully chosen selection of books on music, drama and dance, and a representative collection of orchestra scores, operas, chamber music and standard instrumental and vocal literature. It also includes the necessary reference books for the daily use of students in music education and academic subjects. The record library contains a wide variety of representative recordings. All full-time students of the Conservatory are accorded the privilege of borrowing books from the Boston Public Library, which contains one of the largest musical reference libraries in the country.

EVENING INSTRUCTION

The Conservatory is open evenings for the convenience and benefit of those who are unable to attend during the day. Instruction in all subjects is available with regular faculty members. Evening students are accorded the privileges of examinations, participation in recitals, and other school activities.

SUMMER INSTRUCTION

Instruction in various subjects offered at the Conservatory is available throughout the summer. Credit towards degree, diploma, or certificate requirements may be obtained by summer study. Summer work, when pursued in addition to the regular school year course, offers to students the opportunity of continuing their studies uninterruptedly and thereby accelerating the completion of their courses.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The following scholarships afford financial assistance for a limited number of students who show evidence of exceptional ability and are unable to pay the costs of tuition. Scholarships awarded to students are continued to the end of their courses, provided that they are availing themselves to the full measure of their advantage. The amount of each award is determined by the financial status of the student.

THE SEVCIK SCHOLARSHIP. A fund established for the aid of one or more deserving violin students by the distinguished violin pedagogue, Professor Otakar Sevcik, during his visit to America (1931-32) as guest teacher.

BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

BLANCHE B. PARKER FUND. The income of a bequest of twenty-five hundred dollars under the will of the late Blanche B. Parker to be used for the assistance of one or more women students of voice.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP. A special fund established by the Alumni Association to aid needy students.

BERTHA T. OTIS SCHOLARSHIP. The income from a fund of five hundred dollars established by the late Bertha T. Otis.

FACULTY SCHOLARSHIPS. Scholarships sponsored by faculty members are available to students of composition, voice, organ, pianoforte, orchestral instruments, dance and drama.

CONSERVATORY SCHOLARSHIP FUND. A fund made possible by individual contributions and by proceeds from various benefit recitals and activities.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT SCHOLARSHIP: A fund established by the Student Government Organization of The Conservatory to aid deserving students.

RECITALS, CONCERTS

STUDENT RECITALS: Throughout the school year public recitals are given by advanced students and those performing most commendably in the recital classes.

FACULTY RECITALS: All faculty recitals given during the year are open to students without charge and to the public upon invitation.

CONCERTS: A number of concerts by the Conservatory orchestra, chorus, ensembles, and other groups is given during the school year. Members of the faculty, advanced students, and guest artists frequently appear on these programs.

RESIDENCE

The Conservatory maintains dormitories for women near the school buildings and overlooking the beautiful Fens. The rooms are furnished with studio couch beds, chiffoniers or bureaus, writing desks, chairs and lamps. Occupants are required to furnish blankets; couch cover and window draperies if desired. Linen and towels are provided by the dormitory and laundered weekly for a service charge of $10 per semester.

It is expected that students will conduct themselves properly at all times and adhere to the general house regulations. Freedom, consistent with the best interests of the school and the students themselves, is extended to all. Women students who are not living at home are required to live in the dormitories or at other residences approved by the school.

Room reservation should be made as soon as the student is notified that her application has been accepted. A deposit of twenty-five dollars is required to confirm the reservation. A reservation shall be considered as binding for the entire school year. A student may be released from this agreement only in the event of an emergency which, in the judgment of the Conservatory management, necessitates her withdrawal from the school.

Residence charges are payable by the semester in advance and will be subject to no deductions for vacations or other absences. Rates include room, weekly laundry of bed linen and towels, and three meals daily, Monday through Saturday. There are a number of attractive restaurants in the immediate vicinity of the dormitories where students may obtain meals on Sunday at their leisure.

Single room	$114, $133, $150 a semester
Double room	$114, $133, $150 a semester
Laundry service charge	$10 a semester
Meals	$228 a semester

Men students will be given assistance, when possible, in locating suitable rooms in approved private homes near the Conservatory.

Twenty-four

Description of Subjects

THEORY AND SOLFEGE

THEORY AND SOLFEGE 1-2. Review of the basic fundamentals of music; notation, clefs, scales, tonality, intervals, chords, ornamentation, terminology. Rhythmical articulation and sight singing in the G, F, and C (alto and tenor) clefs. Rhythmic, melodic and harmonic dictation.

Three hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

THEORY AND SOLFEGE 3-4. Advanced studies in rhythmical reading and sight singing with the seven clef positions; transposition. Dictation in extended melodic line and in two, three, and four parts.

Three hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester. Mr. Greselin

HARMONY

HARMONY 1-2. Preliminary definitions; triads of the major and minor diatonic scales and their inversions; chord progressions with emphasis on good voice leading; seventh and ninth chords and their inversions; harmonization of given basses and melodies; modulation to related keys. Keyboard harmony includes cadence formulas in all keys and simple melody harmonization.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

HARMONY 3-4. Chromatically altered chords; suspension and other non-harmonic tones; modulation to remote keys; exercises in vocal and instrumental styles; the writing of accompaniments in free style; analysis of Bach chorales and other literature.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Mr. Lee

FORM AND ANALYSIS

FORM AND ANALYSIS 1-2. Harmonic principles underlying chord structures and harmonic rhythm in relationship to form and content; non-harmonic and contrapuntal devices. The principal works discussed are the Preludes for the Well-Tempered Clavier by Bach, the Preludes for piano by Chopin and works by Wagner, Faure and Hindemith. In the second semester representative scores from the seventeenth through the twentieth centuries are compared and contrasted to illustrate various approaches to form, texture, orchestration and extra-musical considerations.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Mr. Pinkham

COUNTERPOINT

COUNTERPOINT 1-2. A course in sixteenth century counterpoint as exemplified by the works of Palestrina. Technical exercises in the five species and creative work in the style of the period.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Mr. Oberle, Mr. Pinkham

COUNTERPOINT 3-4. Eighteenth century counterpoint; two, three and four parts in all species; florid counterpoint; imitation; text setting. Analysis of works by Bach and Mozart.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Mr. Lee

COUNTERPOINT 5-6. Double counterpoint; canon at all degrees, retrograde and inversion; the invention; fugal exposition. Analysis of representative works.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

Mr. Lee, Mr. Pinkham

Twenty-five

COUNTERPOINT 7-8. Canon and Fugue. An advanced course given only by private instruction.

Credit granted in accordance with work completed.

Mr. Lee, Mr. Pinkham

INSTRUMENTATION

INSTRUMENTATION 1-2. A study of the nature of the various orchestral instruments, singly and in combination; practice in making orchestral and band arrangements suitable for public school music work.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

INSTRUMENTATION 3-4. Scoring for full orchestra and/or band, and for various instrumental combinations. Classes are limited to four students.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

INSTRUMENTATION 5-6. A continuation of instrumentation 3-4, with emphasis on orchestration for the symphony orchestra. Analysis of the technics employed by composers of the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries.

This course is given only by private instruction and credit is granted in accordance with the work completed.

Mr. Gregorian, Mr. Lee, Mr. Pinkham

COMPOSITION

COMPOSITION 1-2. Composition in smaller forms of pianoforte and instrumental combinations. Composition for voice and chorus with particular attention to the setting of texts and idiomatic vocal and choral practices. Emphasis is made on performance practicability and students have the opportunity of hearing their works performed in class or in informal concerts.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COMPOSITION 3-4. Primarily instrumental. Sonatas for solo instrument and piano or chamber combinations. Special attention is given to the mastery of technique.

Two private lessons weekly; credit, four hours each semester.

COMPOSITION 5-6. Intensive study in the larger forms: Concerto, sonata, symphony, and string quartet. Analysis of representative works in these forms.

Two private lessons weekly; credit, five hours each semester.

Minimum requirements for the bachelor's degree:

- (1) not less than five works in smaller forms—piano pieces, songs or solos for orchestral instruments;
- (2) a motet or large anthem for chorus with or without solos;
- (3) a composition in fugal form for string quartet, woodwind or brass ensemble;
- (4) an example of sonata-form for pianoforte or for an ensemble combination;
- (5) an orchestral work of not less than fifteen minutes in duration.

COMPOSITION 7-8. An advanced course with concentration in the larger forms.

Private instruction. Credit granted in accordance with work completed.

Mr. Gregorian, Mr. Lee, Mr. Pinkham

HISTORY OF MUSIC

HISTORY OF MUSIC 1-2. This course, run in close conjunction with Fine Arts, gives the student a cultural and historical background of styles from primitive through modern. A selected number of representative musical examples is studied in detail. Regular listening periods and written assignments supplement the class work.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester. Mr. Pinkham

HISTORY OF MUSIC 3-4. A survey of representative works of the great composers from Mediaeval through the Twentieth Century with special concern for the technical aspects of their individual styles and the relationship to the periods in which they lived.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester. Mr. Pinkham

CHURCH MUSIC

CHURCH MUSIC 1-2. Choir Training: Methods of organization; rehearsal techniques; choral repertory; program building; various rituals; chant; pronunciation of church Latin.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester. Mr. Oberle

CHURCH MUSIC 3-4. Service Playing: A practical study of the church service, hymns, anthems, their best usage and how to play them; organ repertory for the church service; extemporization.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester. Mr. Oberle

CHURCH MUSIC 5-6. A study of the history of sacred music; Gregorian chant; Anglican chant; notation.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester. Mr. Oberle

Dance Department

JAN VEEN, Director

LOUISA PHILIPS
KATRINE HOOPER

ADELE HOOPER HUGO
RUTH SANDHOLM

Realizing the importance of dance in its curriculum the Boston Conservatory of Music invited JAN VEEN, artist, educator, choreographer, to create a dance department with a dance major of collegiate grade where dance will have the proper relation to music and be correlated with the necessary academic courses. The professional course is designed to train students to take their place as highly skilled dancers, and to develop efficient and trustworthy teachers of dance and physical education. The dance major is comprised of subjects which run through the entire period of training and the material becomes progressively far-reaching as the faculties of the student expand. A student may elect to major in dance and minor in drama if so desired (see course outlines elsewhere in catalogue).

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS: (a) Graduation from high school with a minimum of 15 units as prescribed for the degree course (page 12). (b) a written statement from a physician certifying that the applicant's general health and physical stamina are equal to the demands of serious dance training.

Credit, two semester hours.

Preparatory Department

The Preparatory Department of the Boston Conservatory of Music is open to both children and adults who are desirous of obtaining thorough musical training in the elementary and intermediate grades. All instruction is given by regular members of the faculty and their assistants. The courses are designed to prepare students to qualify for admission to the degree and certificate courses, and to provide instruction for others who may have only an avocational interest in music and wish to participate in this form of art expression.

Instruction is offered in voice, piano, and all orchestral instruments. Courses in elementary theory, sight-singing, and ear-training are also given, and must be taken by those students who are preparing for admission to the degree courses. Students, interested in drama and dance, may refer to the respective departments elsewhere in the catalog for a description of the work offered.

The length of time required for completion of the work prescribed in the different preparatory subjects cannot be estimated accurately as much depends upon the age, ability, and interest of the individual student, as well as the subject and number of lessons taken weekly.

For the purposes of classification and examinations, the course material used in the instrumental subjects is outlined in two parts; that of voice, one part. Instructors may, at their discretion, substitute other material equivalent to that outlined, according to the needs of the individual student.

JUNIOR CERTIFICATE

The Conservatory Junior Certificate will be awarded to students who complete the prescribed work of any applied music course (voice or instrument) in the Preparatory Department and the Junior Theory and Solfege course.

JUNIOR CLASSES

These classes are for children and young people of junior and high school age. The work includes theory, ear-training and music reading adapted to the abilities and interests of the individual student. The work leads progressively to the preparation of students for admission to the degree and certificate courses. To complete the course the student must have acquired a thorough knowledge of all major and minor scales, key and time signatures, clefs, intervals, common chords and inversions, the dominant seventh chord and its inversion. He should be able to harmonize simple melodies and to modulate to related keys. He should also be able to sing at sight in the G and F clefs studies equivalent in difficulty to those found in Dannhauser, Solfege des Solfeges, Book II, first part, and to take simple rhythmic and melodic dictation in 2/4, 3/4, and 4/4 time.

One or two hours weekly, depending on the age level.

Regulations

All students are required to comply with these regulations and with any further rules that the Conservatory may deem necessary to put into effect.

Each student must consult the official bulletin board regularly and will be held personally responsible for any consequences due to his remissness.

A form of registration must be filled out and properly signed upon entrance by every student of the Conservatory; each student must pay a registration fee.

Students will not be accepted for fewer than ten lessons in private instruction or less than one semester in class instruction.

Private lessons missed, due to unavoidable absence, will be made up providing twenty-four hours' notice of intended absence has been given to the Conservatory office. Failure of regular course students to give proper notice of intended absence will necessitate payment of an additional fee. All lessons that are to be made up must be taken during the current school year.

The number of absences allowed each student in class subjects is as follows:

Classes meeting three times weekly.....4 absences per semester

Classes meeting twice weekly.....3 absences per semester

Classes meeting once weekly2 absences per semester

Any additional absences due to illness or other emergency must be substantiated by a medical certificate or other acceptable evidence. A student who arrives at a class ten minutes after the scheduled hour will be considered late. Twice late will count as one absence. Absence from classes immediately prior to or following vacation periods or holidays will be counted as a double absence. Students who fail to comply with this regulation will forfeit credit for the course.

Absence from a scheduled examination will result in failure of the course unless the reason is determined valid. In such case a make-up examination must be taken on or before the next scheduled date in the calendar for make-up examinations in order to establish credit. A charge of $4 is made for each examination.

Any member of the chorus, orchestra, band, opera class or other ensemble groups who fails to participate in a public performance when requested by the instructor in charge must forfeit credit for the course.

Students with a major in applied music are required to do a minimum of three hours daily practice. Students reserving practice accommodations in the Conservatory must adhere to scheduled practice hours, which are subject to change only at the discretion of the office.

All business connected with the school such as the arrangement of lesson appointments, change of day or hours for appointment, payment of tuition, etc., must be attended to directly at the office.

Tuition fees are payable in advance in accordance with the registration agreement. An additional charge is made for late payment. In case of dismissal or withdrawal, refunds will be made in accord with the following schedule when credit balance exceeds $20:

Within two weeks—60%; four weeks—40%; five weeks—20%;
after five weeks, no refund.
